ALLANSFORD ALIVE SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

SCHOOL CHATTER

What a fabulous start to term 3- our students have returned to school working with focus and curiosity. It was wonderful to see the students greeting each other with joy and enthusiasm. They have treated each other and their teachers with respect and kindness.

We have an amazing team of teachers and student leaders that are working hard to create a fabulous learning environment with some fantastic opportunities such as Science Week rotations and Book Week activities.

We are fortunate to have a number of new staff and staff movement to replace our staff on Long Service Leave for the first weeks of Term 3.

Welcome to

*Mrs McMahon in Grade 5/6

*Miss Bissett & Mrs Dance in Grade 1

*Mr Rock in Grade 3/ 4

*Ms Brown in PE

*Ms Hughson in Music

*Mrs Bellman as Acting Principal

STUDENTS OF THE WEEK

We were very pleased to present a belated award to Henderson in Foundation. An awesome effort, Congratulations.

STUDENT LEADER

Congratulations to Lexi (Year 6) for assisting us with Monday morning assembly when she enthusiastically stepped in to assist. She presented our oath, the National Anthem and welcome to the new term with a smile and confidence. Well done.

FOUNDATION (PREP) 2024 ENROLMENTS

SCHOOL INTERVIEWS

Congratulations to all parents and students who met with their teachers for our Interviews. It was wonderful to see students glowing as they shared their work and discussed their ideas. We appreciate all parents that made the time to show this commitment to their students learning process. If you still wish to have an interview, please do your teacher to organise a time.

WHAT AN AMAZING TIME IN AND OUT OF OUR CLASSROOMS

ONE OF OUR OWN IN HOLIDAY ACTORS

Last week, Oliver performed in the Primary Performers: Charlie & The Chocolate Factory spectacular. The Primary Performers cast did an amazing job of bringing Charlie and the Chocolate Factory to life!

Oliver played the part of Grandpa Joe, Charlie's Grandpa. The fabulous cast and crew have worked on the production for the past 3 months. The four performances were seen by over 2,000 people, making it the most successful Primary Performers show to date!

Congratulations Oliver, we are so proud of you!

GOOD LUCK TIMMY

Timmy, a Grade 6 student, has qualified to represent our school and our Region for the SSV State Cross Country in 11 year Boys division, to be held at the Yarra Valley Racing Club on Thursday July 13th.

Timmy has worked extremely hard training at school and in his own time to continually beat his Personal Best and achieve his running goals. His enthusiasm and determination along with his grit and skill was clear at the end of each level of qualification.

We wish Timmy the best for his event – we will be cheering from afar Timmy wishing you the best and so proud of you.
