ALLANSFORD ALIVE SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Student Leaders

Congratulations to Lachlan and Oska for planning and implementing last week's assembly. Both students collaborated with each other, their peers and staff to get a whole school assembly up and running in one day. Normally students have time to practice but with only one day after returning from lockdown both Lachlan and Oska did an amazing job.

Remote Learning

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all parents & carers for your support over the last week as the school moved from on-site to remote learning. I am particularly grateful for the teachers and administration staff for the close tracking of all the school correspondence that happened each day and for the prompt preparation of learning materials and on-line provision for the four-day lockdown period. I also would like to thank those staff who provided on-site supervision to vulnerable students and children of essential workers.

Future Lockdowns

Public health advice in response to the Covid-19 pandemic impacts our daily work and living arrangements. Schools receive regular up-dates from the department on how this health advice impacts the daily operations of our school community. No doubt we will have further lockdowns and all parties (students –parents –teachers) need to be able to transition from on-site to remote learning with very little time notification.

Grade 1/2 & 2 and 3/ 4 Buddies

Each Tuesday afternoon our grades meet together to develop our learning through peer activities. We have improved our Athletic, Cross Country and skipping skills. We have developed our Understanding of Empathy and Kindness. This week we worked on our drawing skills with our buddies.
